ODSC

- HROD Study Circle is a student forum meant exclusively for knowledge sharing. It aims for holistic development of the student.
- It identifies the gap between theory learned in class and practice gained in the industry and attempts to bridge the gap.
- Within ODSC there are many clubs such as GK, Aptitude, Case Studies, Labour Law and Group Discussions. These clubs facilitate students to take initiatives, experiment with new ideas and develop concepts.
- It ultimately results in students displaying fine leadership qualities indicating the leaders in the pipeline for industries.

BHAVISHYA –STUDENT FORUM

Bhavishya, is a Sanskrit word that means FUTURE. It is the name of the Student's forum of the Department of HR & OD. It is in successful operation ever since the department took form. Every year, the Student's Forum is construed of The Student's Senate.

The primary objectives of the Student Forum are:

- To provide leadership development and promote growth opportunities to student members
- To oversee the allocation of funds to the student laterals
- To manage the communication of college-wide policies to student lateral in-charges
- To disseminate and exchange information among laterals

To meet these objectives, the Department Student Forum arranges frequent meetings of the student members together with experts, academic faculty, and industry leaders. Programmes of common interest are also arranged, involving students' forum at many institutions in the state, city, region etc.

The Department Faculty provides support to student leaders as they develop their leadership skills and create a variety of events and activities. It is the goal of the Student Forum to create a comfortable environment for the students of the department to share, create, and implement their own ideas. All programs sponsored by the Student Forum are created and implemented by students with the guidance, support, and direction of the Department Faculty.

T

OD SYNAPSE :

Bhavishya, culminates at the yearly corporate and student based event. It aims at creating a platform for the students to interact with the eminent personalities from the corporate world and gain insights from the corporate and also to network with students from various other institutions.
