Anti-Plastics Awareness

50 NSS volunteers of Madras School of Social Work created Anti-Plastics Awareness on October 2nd 2019. It was organized on Gandhi Jayanthi, to attract lot of the public and would be a platform to create an awareness regarding the harmful effects of plastic usage. Two major activities held on that day. The first one is, a rally against plastic. Holding placards with slogans mentioning the I'll effects of plastics. Earlier, we were informed about the dress code white. The rally started from the front portion of the Egmore Railway Station, by jostled slogans in favor of plastic ban. The second activity, was cleaning, washing and moping the platforms and students were given gloves and face mask. The students enthusiastically involved in the cleaning activity. Finally, the students did wall painting and kept palm impressions depicting the mission on not to use plastics on the side entrance of the station.
