

Human rights violation and legal issues in women's rights

On 09.03.2020, The Legal Rights Organization For Human Cause in collaboration with Madras School Of Social Work conducted the Women's Awareness Seminar in the presence of Dr.R.Subhashini Dean(SF),Madras School Of Social Work. The Special Guest being Dr.S. Raja Samuel, Pricipal, Maras School of Social Work. The Chief Guests for the day was Justice Dr. T.N. Vallainayagan Rtd., and Dr.R.Karpoora Sundara Pandian IAS(Rtd.,)

The event commenced by 10:30 and after the welcome address the first speaker was called upon.

Dr.N.P. Veenavani a syndicate member legal rights organization and also a psychotherapist was the first speaker for the day. She started off with a story and further went to talk about each individual should contain four C's and three D's in order to come up in life and achieve greater goals. The four C's being Courage, Considerate, Compassionate and Conquering. The three D's being Discipline, Dedication and Determination.

The next programme was the book release of Dr.B.S.S. Jegan's fourth book 'Ezhunthu Vaa Singa Penney' which was inaugurated by Justice Dr.T.N. Vallainayagan Rtd., and copies of the books were distributed to all present there.

The second speaker for the day was Dr.R.Karpoora Sundara Pandian IAS(Rtd.), Former Secretary Government Of TamilNadu and Founder of Manitha Vazha Malyam Free Coaching Centre. His bio projected him as a person who trains students for IAS, IPS examinations and shared a personal story of his student and her story of success and also on how mobile phones must be used only when it is necessary.

the Key Note Address and the next speaker on stage was Dr.B.S.S.Jegan, President, Legal Rights Organization for Human Cause, the writer of the book 'Ezhunthu Vaa Singa Penney' who gave a summary about what his book is about and further went on to give prizes to individuals who had raised a complaint in the RTI(Right To Information)

The fourth speaker was Justice Dr.T.N.Vallainayagan Rtd.,, Judge, Lok Adalat and former Judge- High Court of Madras and Karnataka. He spoke on the various important laws that are present and are useful and further went on to answer the questions raised by the audience present.

After the speakers were done with their speeches, they were facilitated with momentos, and further the Pricipal went on to address the Vote of Thanks.