

InaugurationDate: 23 July 2019

The student forum “BHAVISHYA” of the department of Human Resources and Organization Development was inaugurated on 23-07-2019 in the MSSW auditorium. Mr. Dayalan T.A (HEAD-HR, Rane Madras limited) and Mr. George (Manager HR, Tata Consultancy Services) were the guests for the day, who were experts in the field of HR. The event commenced with a welcome address given by the forum president Mr. Naveen Kumar and the dignitaries were honored by Asst.Prof. Dunston and Asst.Prof. Venkatesh. The Head of the Department of Human Resource and Organization Development, Prof.Ms. Sivaranjani, gave a brief introduction about the department and the student forum, after which the theme of Bhavishya 2019-2020 was revealed through a video. Ms. Shema, student of second year, introduced the theme "SHAMROCK" and explained how each leaflet denotes various attributes. The leaf also symbolizes the go green approach they have chosen to give back to the environment and society. Mr. Dayalan in his interactive session shared his practical knowledge and experience and inspired the students to go extra mile to discover what they really wanted. Mr. George being an alumnus of HROD Department from Madras school of social work was the first batch to start Bhavishya and he shared his insights about the forum. This forum is created for the students of MA HROD to experience and learn a lot more outside their regular studies and gain more knowledge about the corporate world. This forum motivates everyone to think outside the box and helps the students to be more passionate about their career. Office bearers were officially given their roles and responsibilities followed by the oath ceremony. The program ended with the vote of Thanks given by Ms. Bhagyalakshmi of first year MA HROD followed by the national anthem.
