

RURAL CAMP –THULIRGAL 2018

Students from the Madras School Of Social Work, Master of Social Work (MSW), (SF), as part of their academic curriculum went for a rural camp to the villages of Chengalpet District from 03/09/2018 to 08/09/2018. Throughout the week they went to Ambedkar Nagar, Melacheri, Ullavur, Puliur, and Irungundrampalli. They were accommodated and supported by CRDS (Chengalpet Rural Development Society). Students activities included cleaning and painting of Anganvaadis, Restoration of an old library, conducting productive activities for primary and secondary school students, donating notebooks, dust bins, stationery sports and first aid kits, conducting medical camps, surveying, performing PRA (Participatory Rural Appraisal) and creating awareness on health and hygiene, sexual harassment, gender equality, education, child abuse, child marriage and alcohol issues via. Cultural activities. On 7th September Rotary Club of Kodambakkam sponsored for a medical camp conducted by the Rotaract Club of MSSW. On the final day of the camp, students planted saplings in the CRDS campus.

