

M.M. Muhammed Jabir is an assistant professor at Madras School of Social Work. Prior to joining MSSW, Mr. Jabir was a Project Associate at Indian Institute of Management, Kozhikode. He pursued his PhD in Social Work from Delhi School of Social Work in September 2019 with a study on post-return living difficulties and coping strategies of return migrants in Kerala. He received his M.Phil. in Social Work from DSSW- University of Delhi where he graduated in 2014 with an analysis of issues and concerns of deserted women in Mysore marriages in Kerala. His research interests include migration, identity, minorities and women studies.