

Madras School of Social Work

32, Casa Major Road, Egmore, Chennai- 600008

Youth Resource Centre

Date: 20.07.2020

Youth Resource Centre (YRC), MSSW in collaboration with OISCA, Women's Chapter, organised a series of webinars- "WE THE PEOPLE" on the commemoration of International Justice Day, on the 17th-18th July 2020. Each session was about an hour. The webinar was attended by 35 participants.

There were two registration options- with and without payment. The participants who paid Rs. 200 were provided with e-certificates.

DAY 1 - JULY 17th 2020, Friday

Session - 1:

- Topic: Introduction to Social Justice

Resource Person - Srividya Shankar, Media person by profession and holds her Master in Psychology.

Time: 11:00AM-12.00PM India

In the session Ms. Srividya Shankar spoke about equality. She said equality starts from home. She also said, instead of teaching equality for kids in school, we can start teaching equality at home. Then she spoke about the rape culture. She said sex education should be must in the school.

The session ended with a Q & A session.

Session - 2:

- Topic: Introduction to Women Rights

Resource Person - Matangi Krishnan, A social worker by profession holds her masters in social work, specializing in Medical and Psychiatric Social Work. She is with The Banyan, Chennai, educating and sensitizing people on the importance of mental health.

Time: 04:00PM- 05:00PM

The speaker Ms. Matangi Krishnan spoke about equality and also feminism. She also said equality starts from home. She said feminism is not only meant for females and also said feminism states that men and women are equal which is mostly misconceived.

The session ended with a Q & A session.

DAY 2 - JULY 18th 2020, Saturday

Session - 3

- Topic: Youth and Human Rights

Resource Person - T. Ramesh, Advocate Practice in High Court of Madras and regularly appears before Supreme Court of India. He is also a Solicitor of U.K and Wales and filed a few cases before Queen's Bench England. Authored a book on Writs and Fundamental Rights under the Constitution of India. He has a Do-authored Guide to GST in English and Tamil.

Time: 11:00AM- 12:00PM India

The speaker Mr.T. Ramesh spoke about the natural rights/ human rights and youth rights. He said rights can't be overused by anyone, because with it we all carry responsibilities. He also spoke about the way youth approach the authorities. And he said today's youth know their rights very well because of the cases, through social media.

The session ended with a Q & A session.

Session - 4:

- Topic: Rights of Women in Matrimonial cases

Resource Person - V. Mohana, She is designated as a Senior Counsel by the Full Court of the Hon'ble Supreme Court. She is a member of the Gender Sensitisation Committee and the Middle Income Group Legal Aid Society, of the Hon'ble Supreme Court.

Time: 04:00PM- 05:00PM India

Session - 5:

- Topic: The Eyeliner Callout

Resource Person - Jeny Shaw, A solicitor in England and Wales, working and living in London. She is a lawyer who graduated from India, has practiced in the Madurai Bench of Madras High Court before moving to the UK

Time: 05:00PM- 06:00PM India

In the last webinar the vote of thanks was given by Ms. Sangeetha Rajkumar, President of OISCA Women's Chapter.

POSTER:

YOUTH RESOURCE CENTER,
MADRAS SCHOOL OF SOCIAL WORK
IN COLLABORATION WITH
OISCA WOMEN'S CHAPTER, CHENNAI

WE THE PEOPLE

WORLD INTERNATIONAL JUSTICE DAY

ON JULY 17&18

200
REGISTRATIONS
ONLY

₹200
FOR REGISTRATION

| | |
|--------------------------------------|------------------------------------|
| INTRODUCTION TO SOCIAL JUSTICE | INTRODUCTION TO WOMEN RIGHTS |
| 1 | 2 |
| 3 | 4 |
| YOUTH & HUMAN RIGHTS | WOMEN LEGAL RIGHTS |

UNITE TO SUPPORT JUSTICE, PROMOTE RIGHTS OF THE VICTIMS, ALSO HELP IN PREVENTING CRIME
THAT THREATEN PEACE, SECURITY AND WELL-BEING OF THE WORLD.

YOUTH RESOURCE CENTER,
MADRAS SCHOOL OF SOCIAL WORK
IN COLLABORATION WITH
OISCA WOMEN'S CHAPTER, CHENNAI

WE THE PEOPLE

WORLD INTERNATIONAL JUSTICE DAY

JULY 17, 2020

Introduction to social justice

SRIVIDYA SHANKAR

Media person by profession and holds her Masters in Psychology

11:00 AM - 12:00 PM

Introduction to Women Rights

MATANGI KRISHNAN

A social worker by profession holds her masters in social work, specializing in Medical and Psychiatric Social Work. She is with The Banyan, Chennai, educating and sensitizing people on importance of mental health.

04:00 PM - 05:00 PM

JULY 18, 2020

Youth and Human Rights

T. RAMESH

Advocate Practices in High Court of Madras and regularly appears before Supreme Court of India. He is also a Solicitor of U.K. and Wales and filed few cases before Queen's Bench England.

11:00 AM - 12:00 PM

Rights of Women in Matrimonial cases

V. MOHANA

She is designated as a Senior Counsel by the Full Court of the Hon'ble Supreme Court. She is a member of the Gender Sensitisation Committee and the Middle Income Group Legal Aid Society, of the Hon'ble Supreme Court.

04:00 PM - 05:00 PM

The Eyeliner Callout

JENY SHAW

A solicitor in England and Wales, working and living in London. She is a lawyer who graduated from India, has practiced in the Madurai Bench of Madras High Court before moving to the UK.

05:00 PM - 06:00 PM

REGISTER AND PARTICIPATE

Mr. S. Xavier Vivek Jerry,
Co-ordinator,
Youth Resource Centre,
Madras School of Social Work.