Youth Resource Centre (YRC), MSSW in collaboration with Thulirgal team, organised a webinar on the topic- Role of Law in Social Work Practice, on the 9th July 2020 (Thursday). It was a one and half hour session, started at 6pm and ended around 7.30pm.

Resource person: Ms Kiruba Munusamy, Advocate at Supreme Court & Founder of Legal Initiative of Equality.

The session started with a welcome address, introduction on Thulirgal, YRC and resource person, proceeded with the resource person elaborating on the topic then a question and answer session by the participants. The session concluded by sending in the feedback form to the participants through the chat box, by asking them to fill in.

Few important points discussed in the webinar:

- There are 6 Human Rights according to our Indian Constitution
 1. Right to Equality,
 2. Right to Freedom,
 3. Right against Exploitation,
 4. Right to Freedom of Religion,
 5. Cultural and Educational Rights, and
 6. Right to Constitutional Remedies.
- Article 32 provides the right to Constitutional remedies which means that a person has the right to move to the Supreme Court (and high courts also) for getting his fundamental rights protected. While the Supreme Court has power to issue writs under Article 32, High Courts have been given the same powers under Article 226.
