

MADRAS SCHOOL OF SOCIAL WORK
PG DEPARTMENT OF SOCIAL WORK - AIDED
FLOOD RELIEF WORK-GYPSY COMMUNITY
10-12-2021

INTRODUCTION

Following the successful implementation of the Flood Relief Program that held on 16th November 2021, the Social Work Forum initiated their next community based project. Following the flood relief program, a donor from Thiruvannamalai district came forward to donate 500 kgs of rice for the benefit of people in need. The social work forum with great respect to the donor and with great gratitude decided to take this project to a grand success by sharing the goods to the people in need.

OBJECTIVE

- The Social Work Forum of Madras School of Social Work, with the support of the Principal Dr. Raja Samuel, the Head of the Department aided Dr. J. S. Gunavathy and the coordinator of Social Work Forum Dr. P. Amudhalakshmi, the forum started their work on 1-12-2021.
- The Social Work Forum with the guidance of the coordinator Dr. P. Amuthalakshmi, decided to work on this project in way it helps people of “ Gypsy” Narikuravar community.

PLANNING

- As the Social Work Forum received the 20 sacks of rice (500 kg's of rice) on 04-12-2021, the forum planned on storing the sacs and maintaining it without any damage.
- The Pilot visit to the community happened on the two day 4-12-2021 to 5-12-2021. The details of the beneficiaries were also collected and the list was made.
- The forum decided to have 150 beneficiaries for the project.

BUDGET PROPOSAL

The budget proposal was made, formal budget proposal has been formulated.

IMPLEMENTATION

- The forum with the help of its members started the packing work on 9-12-2021. The rice were packed into 150 bags .
- Transportation for the same was also coordinated and finalized.
- List of volunteers from the social work forum members was made for distribution of the rice pockets to the community.

STAGE 2: 10-12-2021

- On 10th December 2021, exactly 8 students including the board members of Social Work Forum and the coordinator of Social Work Forum Dr. P. Amuthalakshmi, approached the communities.
- With the list of the beneficiaries, the rice packets were distributed.
- People received the goods expressed their gratitude

CONCLUSION

The project on community work - rice donation to Narikuravar community people was successfully completed, as the goods were distributed to the deserving families of the community. The project success was the joint efforts of the donor, the board members, the members of the forum and mainly with the guidance of the forum coordinator.

