REPUBLIC DAY CELEBRATION 2022

The 73rd republic day was celebrated in MADRAS SCHOOL OF SOCIAL WORK on 26th January 2022, Wednesday from 9 am to 10 am in an astounding manner to cheer our patriotic spirits. The event was held in offline and online mode in view of the pandemic with robust participations from NSS volunteers.

Honourable principal of MSSW Dr S .Raja

Samuel hoisted the national flag in the campus with patriotic pride. The participants sang flag song and Tamizh Thai Vazhthu to honour our tricolour pride. The NSS volunteers took the national pledge. Our respected principal enlightened us with his presidential address. NSS volunteers Miss. Riya Ann Reji [BSW 1st year], Miss. Vidhyaa Lakshmi [BSW 2nd year], Miss. Avanika [B.Sc. psychology 2nd year] unlocked the true meaning of republic day with their patriotic speech. To recognize the 12th national voters day, the participants took the national voters day pledge with our respected principal Dr S. Raja Samuel. This thought provoking event came to end with vote of thanks by Miss. Nanditha [BSW 1 st year]. To show our forever love and respect for our nation, we sang our national anthem with passion.
