

ENGLISH LITERARY CLUB

MONTHLY REPORT - DECEMBER 2025

INTRODUCTION:

The English Literary Club actively strives to cultivate a love for literature, critical thinking, and meaningful dialogue among students through engaging and student-centric initiatives. During the month of December 2025, the club successfully organized a series of activities aimed at promoting reading habits, emotional well-being, and open discussions on contemporary social issues. These activities provided students with opportunities to explore literary works, express their thoughts freely, and participate in thoughtful conversations beyond the classroom.

ACTIVITIES:

1. TALES IN PARTS:

- About the Initiative:

Tales in Parts is a reading initiative by the English Literary Club aimed at encouraging consistent reading habits among students. Literary works are presented in daily episodes highlighting key plot points, allowing students to complete a full text within a week without feeling overwhelmed. The display is placed on the college library notice board.
